

Call for Interdisciplinary Journal of Social Studies No. 23
The Interdisciplinary Journal of Social Studies announces articles for your dossier: “Memories, futures and resistances”

Information for authors

Papers are received in Spanish and Portuguese for dossier and continuous flow.

The articles proposed for the dossier of this call must be sent before the April 1, 2021 to the following email: revistainterdisciplinaria@gmail.com

The articles submitted to the Interdisciplinary Journal of Social Studies must be original, not have been previously published in any of its versions and not be simultaneously proposed for this purpose in another journal.

The originals will be submitted to an editorial process that will be developed in several phases. In the first place, the articles received will be subject to a preliminary evaluation by the members of the Editorial Committee and the Director, who will determine the relevance of the publication. Once it is established that the article meets the thematic requirements, in addition to the formal requirements indicated in these instructions, it will be sent to external academic peers, who will determine anonymously: a) publish without changes, b) publish after minor revisions, c) publish after substantial changes and d) reject. In case of a discrepancy between both results, the text will be sent to a third peer review, whose decision will define the publication. The results of the academic opinion process will be final in all cases.

Guidelines for authors

The guidelines in this publication are based on the 2020 APA Standards (Seventh Edition).

1. Along with the article Word file, the author or authors must attach an abbreviated Curriculum Vitae of each author of no more than 500 words (in a separate file).

The work file must include an abstract of 100 words and three keywords, in Spanish or Portuguese and in a second language (English, French, Portuguese or Spanish). The summary will start without indentation on the first line. The work must include the name of the author or authors under the title of the article and indicate institutional membership and email in a footnote with an asterisk.

The extension of the works: maximum 25 pages in A4 Size, in Times New Roman font, Size 12, with double spacing including citations and bibliography.

The size of the margins should be Normal: 2.54 cm (1 inch) on all sides (top, bottom, left and right).

2. Sources and titles. Use only one type of font for all text (titles, subtitles, citations, notes and headings). Paragraphs will start with a 1/2-inch (1.27 cm) indentation. Spaces should not be added between paragraphs. Use bold and italics according to the title level; avoid underlines. Titles should not be numbered. Titles and subtitles must have double spacing; avoid leaving blank lines above and below them, even at the end of a page. Adjust the titles to the following levels:

- Level 1: (title of the work) each word should start in bold capital letters, centralized, without underlining. Ex:

Title

- Level 2: Each word starting in capital letters, bold, left margin, no indentation, no final period. Ex:

Titles and Subtitles Section

- Level 3: each word should start in bold capital letters, left margin, in italics, no indentation, no final period. Ex:

Subsection

- Level 4: each word should start in bold capital letters, left margin, indentation 1,27 cm (half an inch), add point. Ex:

Sub-subsection.

3. Citation. Quotes of less than 40 words must be enclosed in quotation marks, without italics, and are included in the body of the text. Block transcriptions (of more than 40 words) will be in a separate paragraph, with an indentation of 1.27 cm (half an inch) in its entire left margin, without opening and closing quotation marks, in 12 Times New Roman body, with double spacing. If the citation includes more than one paragraph, start the second and subsequent paragraphs with an additional indentation of 1.27 cm (half an inch). At the end of the quote indicate the source and page number. The same should be done in the case of interviews or documentary sources that are cited in the body of the text. When any comment is added to the interview, it should be placed in square brackets. For example: “[that day] we went to the march.” In case of fragmenting the interview, use parentheses (...).

4. Bibliographic references within the text. The bibliographic references within the text will be made between parentheses, the author’s last name, year of publication, the page number or pages. For example (Eco, 1995, p. 52). Up to two authors are cited, if there are more than two, the first author is cited and et al. For example (Mases et al. 1998). Different authors cited in the same parentheses must be ordered alphabetically and not chronologically (Ex: (Bourdieu, 1980; Foucault, 1975).

5. Complete bibliographic references. All bibliographic references cited in the main text or in the notes must be included at the end of the work in alphabetical order by the authors' last name. The References title should be centered, bold and start on a new page. The list of references must have a French indentation of 1.27 cm (one-half inch). If there are several works by the same author published in the same year, the distinction between them will be made using letters. Example: (Fairclough, 2000a; Fairclough, 2000b). If the author considers it important, the year of the original edition must be in brackets. Example: (Fairclough, 2000 [1992]).

Books: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Year of publication (in parentheses). c) Title of the work in italics. d) Publishing house. All these data must be separated from each other by points.

Example:

Nacuzzi, L. (2010). Principios básicos de entrenamiento en la investigación: la tesis de licenciatura. Editorial de la Facultad de Filosofía y Letras. Universidad de Buenos Aires.

Observation: for online versions add the DOI or url at the end of the citation.

Chapters of books: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Year of publication (in parentheses). c) Title of the chapter. d) Add "in" and initial and last name of the book's editor / s. e) Title of the work in italics. f) Pages covered by the chapter in parentheses, before adding "pp.". g) Publishing house.

Example:

Díaz, E. (1997). Corrientes epistemológicas contemporáneas. En E. Díaz (Ed.), Metodología de las ciencias sociales (pp.117-134). Biblos.

Observation: for online versions add the DOI or url at the end of the citation.

Articles: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Year of publication (in parentheses). c) Title of the article in normal and lowercase type. d) Name of the journal or publication that includes it (in italics). e) Place of publication. f) Volume, volume, (number in parentheses), number of pages covered by the article separated by hyphens without adding "pp."

Example:

Peña Ramos, J. (2013). Indignación en Andalucía: origen y andadura inicial del movimiento 15-M. Si somos americanos. Revista de Estudios Transfronterizos, XIII (2), 15-32.

Observation: for online versions add the DOI or url at the end of the citation.

Web pages: Websites of an organization: a) Full name of the organization without abbreviations. b) Provide a specific date. c) Title of the file or text in italics. d) url.

Example:

Ministerio de ambiente y desarrollo sostenible. (s/f). Deforestación de los bosques nativos en Argentina: causas, impactos y alternativas. <https://www.argentina.gob.ar/ambiente/ciam/deforestacion>

Newspaper or newspaper article: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Date of publication of the article. c) Title of the article in normal and lowercase type. d) Name of the newspaper that includes it in italics. All these data must be separated from each other by points.

Example:

Blanco, J. (9 de octubre de 2020). Tasas. El BCRA busca bajar su déficit y recorta a los bancos el rendimiento de las Leliq. La Nación. <https://www.lanacion.com.ar/economia/el-bcra-hace-sintonia-fina-tasas-sin-nid2473965>

Observation: add url for online newspapers.

Theses and dissertations: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Year (in parentheses). c) Title of the work in italics. d) Academic grades in parentheses. e) Faculty/University. All these data must be separated from each other by points.

Example:

Giménez, P. (2015). Las relaciones políticas y económicas entre Brasil y Argentina: 1989-2011. (Tesis para optar por el grado de licenciado en Relaciones Internacionales). Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y Relaciones Internacionales, Universidad de Rosario.

Papers: a) Last name and initial of the author's name in normal and lowercase letters. b) Date of completion. c) Title of the article in normal, lowercase and italic type. d) Name of the event, e) venue, city and country where it was held.

Example:

Giménez, P. (28-30 de noviembre de 2014). Las relaciones políticas y económicas entre Brasil y Argentina durante el gobierno de Carlos Menem (1989-1999). III Jornadas Internacionales de Problemas Latinoamericanos: "Movimientos Sociales, Estados y Partidos en América Latina: (re)configuraciones institucionales, experiencias de organización y resistencia", Facultad de Ciencias Sociales y Políticas, Universidad Nacional de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina.

6. Interviews or personal communications: in the body of the text put in parentheses and separated by commas a) "interview with" or "personal communication with" name of the person interviewed, pseudonym or acronym, b) personal data of the interviewee (age, profession or relevant data to the job), c) place and date of the interview.

Example: (entrevista con Juan Pérez, jubilado, Buenos Aires, 25 de abril de 2013).

7. Foot notes: Notes should be located at the foot of the page, with consecutive numbers. In Times New Roman font, size 10, single spacing.

8. Acronyms: They must be written in capital letters and when mentioning them for the first time in the text put them in their full version between scripts or parentheses.

9. Tables: They must be sent in Excel in a separate file. In the body of the text, the suggested place to insert it should be indicated as follows: table number and table name in a separate line. The name should be short and descriptive. It is written in italics. Notes are written at the end of the table in Times New Roman font, 10 points. If it is taken from another author, the original author must be added.

Example:

Tabla 1.

Título de la tabla

10. Images, figures and graphics: They must be sent in a separate file: figures and images in original size and Excel charts. In the body of the text, the suggested place to insert them should be indicated as follows: figure number in italics followed by the name in Times New Roman typeface, 10 points. Figures, images and graphics must be numbered consecutively as figures.

Example:

Figura 1. Nombre de la figura.

THOSE ARTICLES THAT DO NOT ADAPT TO THIS FORMAT WILL NOT BE RECEIVED.